

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

TIME ALONE WITH GOD

Take a minute to pray, asking that God would give you insight into this passage, an open heart to hear from Him, and that He would help you believe and respond to His word. Slowly read the passage below.

³ For we too were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, enslaved by various passions and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, detesting one another. ⁴ But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love for mankind appeared, ⁵ he saved us—not by works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy—through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit. ⁶ He poured out his Spirit on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior ⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we may become heirs with the hope of eternal life. ⁸ This saying is trustworthy. I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have believed God might be careful to devote themselves to good works. These are good and profitable for everyone.

TITUS 3:3-8

Spend time processing the passage. Here are a few questions that might help you:

1. What do you learn about yourself from verse 3?
2. How have you seen God's kindness (verse 4) in your life?
3. According to verse 5, on what is your salvation based?
4. What promises do you see in this passage?
5. Why should we do good works according to Titus 3?

How does this passage apply to your life? What is one thing you can do this week to remember God's role in your redemption and his continual role as you "devote yourselves to good works"?

We will talk more this morning about what God is calling us to as believers. Would you take some time and ask God to begin to reveal to you what good works he would have for you back on campus?

Close your time thanking God for what He showed you, and ask for His grace, that He might continue to shape you and accomplish His work in and through your life.
